Professional Profile

Motivated and hardworking BTEC Computing Level 3 Diploma student at Reading College, currently 17 years old and having completed the first year of the course. I am now seeking a part-time job beginning from this summer holidays and continuing afterwards to build real workplace experience in teamwork, communication, customer service, finance handling, and other practical skills. I am eager to learn and adapt quickly to new work environments. Alongside my studies, I enjoy video editing using Adobe After Effects to improve my creativity and have growing experience with HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Python, and Java, while currently learning React.js. I'm looking for a role where I can contribute positively to a team while developing strong professional habits and practical skills.
